PICKED VETERANS MARCH IN VICTORY PARADE IN LONDON

General Pershing and Yankee Fighters Lead Big Demonstration.

THOUSANDS LINE STREETS AND CHEER ALLIED TROOPS

Thanksgiving Service In Westminster Abbey Before Parade.

London, July 19.—Peace was celebrated by the British empire, not only in London, but in every part of the vast dominions over which floats the Union Jack. London's great victory parade was, of course, the most spectacular event of the day, but through out the country, every city, town and hamlet held a peace carnival. Religious services, processions and sports made up the program in nearly every place. In some places, particularly the seaside resorts, battles of flowers featured the day.

Everywhere the returned heroes of the war were honored, whether they appeared in khaki or mufti. These men, released from the perils and hardships of war led the merry making. Those who did not return from the battle-fields were not forgotten. In every town or city there was prayers for the fallen and many a shrine dedicated to the memory of a dead hero bore its floral tribute.

Tonight there will blaze from hill and mountain tops the flare of fires kindled in honor of the return of peace. In Dover there will be a grand illumination, the admiralty turning over to the committee there a large number of flares invented by Commander Brock, who was killed at Zeebrugge, who used this means of illuminating the channel in defending the coast and shipping from U-boats during the war. They burn for seven minutes and light up an area of three square miles.

The day will give a big display off the mouth of the Thames, more than a hundred ships, anchored in a line five miles long, taking part.

One of the largest celebrations of the day outside of London was held at Dublin, where Irish regiments paraded before Field Marshal Viscount French and other members of the Irish administration.

As a result of the efforts of the British patriotic league, the celebration of the day was observed in the dominions and in the most remote parts of the empire.

Nineteen thousand allied soldiers-picked men from famous combat divisions the names of which are written large on the pages of history of the world war—marched through London's streets today in celebration of the return of peace. The line of parade was more than six miles in length and required over an hour to pass a given point.

King George, with other members of the royal family, army and navy officers and leaders of both houses of parliament, stood on the steps of the Victoria Memorial in front of Buckingham

WILSON PLEASED WITH ATTITUDE OF REP. SENATORS

Believes Conferences Have Cleared Many Doubtful Questions.

WILL CONTINUE CONFERENCE THE FIRST OF NEXT WEEK

Senators Take Day off to Prepare Addresses on Treaty Debate.

Washington, July 19.—President Wilson's advisers said today he was highly pleased with the attitude of Republican senators and resume his diplomatic office and resume his status as a private citizen, takes an optimistic view of the situation in Italy. "Get the people back to work and Italy will very soon resume its natural conditions," says Mr. Page.

Washington, July 19.—President Wilson's advisers said today he was highly pleased with the attitude of Republican senators and resume his diplomatic office and resume his status as a private citizen, takes an optimistic view of the situation in Italy. "Get the people back to work and Italy will very soon resume its natural conditions," says Mr. Page.

The President has no appointments today but expects to see more Republican senators Monday and in the days following. He has conferred with seven senators since sending out his invitations to them to come to the White House and hopes to see practically all of them before starting on his tour of the country.

Mr. Wilson devoted most of his time today to legislative work.

There was recess today in senate on a little peace treaty as well as in its consideration by the foreign relations committee.

At two meetings yesterday the committee made a little progress in preliminary reading of the treaty text, but gave up hope of completing the task this week and adjourned until Monday.

The senate also adjourned over today, but many senators were at work on addresses to be made during debate next week. Senators Pomeroy of Ohio, Beckman of Kentucky, both Democrats have announced they will speak Monday.

At the house was ready to resume.

Chairman Good, of the appropriations committee, asked unanimous consent to call a joint resolution making appropriation bills signed by the President after July 1 retroactive to that date.

Representative Curry, Republican, of Michigan, Chairman Volstead's right hand man on the judiciary committee, in the enforcement fight, objected even when informed that it would take less than five minutes to consider the resolution and that if he persisted the appropriation committee would be forced to obtain a special rule to make the resolution in order.

Some of the dry leaders still showed their resentment of the refusal of majority leaders yesterday to approve a night session.

Members of the minority announced, too, that they would refuse hereafter to give the drys additional speaking time.

Before the house resumed consideration today of the prohibition enforcement bill, one part of which already has been perfected, dry leaders announced they would insist upon a night session in the hope of letting the country know through the Sunday morning papers that the measure with its drastic provisions had been passed and was ready for the senate.

First on the program today was the question of amendments to the flavoring extract section, half a dozen of which were introduced by Chairman Volstead, for a week or more the chairman has been trying to hit upon some compromise amendment which would permit housewives to keep on flavoring their puddings while at the same placing enough restrictions on the extract industry to prevent use of its products as an alcoholic beverage.

Major Thompson will appoint a chairman of the committee.

Committee will try to prevent Chicago strike.

Mayor Names Nine to Investigate Controversy Between Car Men and Traction Companies.

Chicago, July 19.—Mayor Thompson today appointed a mediation committee of nine members to investigate both sides of the controversy between the Chicago traction companies and their men in an effort to avert the threatened strike of employees. The action was taken in accordance with the plan of the resolution adopted by the city council several days ago. The men it was said will meet tomorrow to fix a date for beginning the strike.

Major Thompson will appoint a chairman of the committee.

MEX. BANDITS ROB U. S. TARS

Sailors Held Up By Armed Men Near Tampico—State Department Enters Kick.

Washington, July 19.—A boat from the U. S. Cheyenne occupied by enlisted men of the navy was held up by armed men in the Tampico river near Tampico, Mexico, July 18, and the sailors were robbed. The incident bears a resemblance to the so-called Tampico affair of 1914 which resulted in the occupation of Vera Cruz. Urgent representations to the Carranza government and local authorities at Tampico have gone forward.

First on the program today was the question of amendments to the flavoring extract section, half a dozen of which were introduced by Chairman Volstead, for a week or more the chairman has been trying to hit upon some compromise amendment which would permit housewives to keep on flavoring their puddings while at the same placing enough restrictions on the extract industry to prevent use of its products as an alcoholic beverage.

Major Thompson will appoint a chairman of the committee.

SAYS BROTHER FIRES SHOTS, KILLING OFFICER

Cleveland, July 19.—Patrick Kehoe, younger of the two Cleveland bandit brothers charged with the murder of Special Agent Marshal Ernest Gruening at Wadsworth on Wednesday, will be given a preliminary hearing to-day. Justice Edward J. Donahue, of Columbiana, Ohio, who is the brother of Patrick, who is the older, has filed a motion to quash the indictments against his sons.

Patrick, who is 26, fired the shots which killed Gruening and wounded two other special deputies when the brothers were captured, entered a plea of guilty to the charge of first degree murder.

Patrick, who at that time was a member of the gang, was held to the grand jury.

Here Is the Most Vital and Thrilling Picture Ever Made In the History of the Silent Drama! Coming To THE AUDITORIUM Next Thur., Fri. and Sat.

THE TRUE STORY OF AURORA MARDIGANIAN

"THE AUCTION OF SOULS" —OR— RAVISHED ARMENIA

MORE THAN A PICTURE IT IS LIVING HISTORY!

ABSOLUTELY TRUE TO LIFE REPRODUCTION OF ADVENTURES OF GIRL WHO HAS SEEN AND SUFFERED AS FEW LIVING HUMAN BEINGS

FAITHFUL HISTORICAL FACTS PICTURED IN A WAY TO THRILL AND AMAZE YOU.

Aurora Mardiganian, WHO APPEARS IN THE PICTURE, lived with her parents in a fertile valley not far from Mount Ararat when the Turks started driving a half million men, women and children into the desert on the pretext that they were to aid their enemies, the Russians.

Miss Mardiganian, not yet reached the age of womanhood, and sought after some time by a Turkish official, was promised safety for herself and family if she would become his. She refused, and was driven into the desert with the rest.

Then followed the most frightful experience that any human being ever suffered. How the Armenians died of thirst in the desert, were struck down by brutal officers, were forced to swim rivers, and to throw out little children to lighten loads; how girls were hunted at night by the drunken Turks; how they were sold in the slave markets and forced into harems of Turkish chiefs, are all shown in the picture.

The young girls are shown under the brutal lash of the Turk. They are shown draped in the sheerest cloth being sold on the block. One picture shows a row of them crucified on rude crosses on the desert, as an example to others who dared resist the brutal Turks.

Mary Regan

Large crowds again saw Anita Stewart in her third big First National Exhibitors Corp. feature "Mary Regan." Leroy Scott's famous story. In this Miss Stewart fights a desperate game to prove in the man she loves that she is innocent of the crime on her name is a menace to his success. In this she visualizes the girl who has the brains, beauty and nerve to toy with the big business devotees of big pleasure in New York's midnight joy round. Her father a crook, her mother a lady, herself much sought beauty. Mary Regan's soul is torn by stormy emotions, which are translated in this wonderful seven part photoplay. Lois Weber, the belles of the screen directed it and it is seen tonight for the last time together with the latest world events in Pathé News.

No Mother To Guide Her.

Ben and Myrtle are a happy couple until they encounter Charles Lynn, week's end visitor. Ben makes the mistake of going duck shooting, leaving his pale-faced spouse to be entertained by the visitor whom he regarded as his best friend.

Charles improves the interval to persuade Myrtle to elope with him. They leave for the station with their luggage, but finding that they are ahead of time, they drop into a moving picture theatre to while away the time.

The fate of the villain in the picture was so terrible and he pack Myrtle back home before Ben could return to make matters worse.

"No Mother To Guide Her" with Ben Turpin at the Auditorium tomorrow.

Outcasts of Poker Flat.

For all those who aspire to literary fame, here is an example of a life that was given entirely to good literature — comedies and dramatic writings sharing alike in the author's great genius.

The author referred to is the immortal Bret Harte, who has endeared himself to lovers of literature the world over. The occasion for recalling this literary genius has risen because one of his greatest stories, "The Outcasts of Poker Flat," has been adapted to the screen by the Universal Company and will be shown at the Auditorium theatre Sunday with Harry Carey as the star.

Probably thousands who have laughed and smiled and shed tears with Bret Harte while reading "The Outcasts of Poker Flat" know but little of the history of this great writer outside of recognizing that his fame is stored to the four corners of the earth.

PHIL CAMPBELL AGAIN.

We will results and unfair attacks on the President cease? Now that the President is home openly offering everything in his power to fully and fairly present every phase of treaty and league before the senate, even to appearing at committee sessions if desired, it would seem that common courtesy should stop the personal attacks.

The latest is the assume measure by Representative Phil Campbell of Kansas seeking to forbid by law the president leaving the country during his term of office. Campbell, true to the line of attack of his colleagues in house and senate, makes a play for the approval of the prejudice by declaring that Wilson, abroad, was paid honors accorded to royalty and reciprocated by giving royalty everything it asked.

ANIMALS IN HOT WEATHER.

The man who in winter leaves a thin and shivering horse out unblanketed on a cold day, is usually the same one who leaves him out in a sunny spot in mid-summer. Some men seem absolutely oblivious to the fact that domestic animals have feelings and are capable of pleasure and pain. These faithful creatures work nearly every day in the year for their hard masters, and in return ought to have some decent comfort as the pay for their toil.

It takes only a little care to make a horse comfortable amid the heat of summer. With a little pain a shady spot can be found in which to tie him when left by himself. But a great many are left in places where they broil in the sun and where the man would get sunstroke.

Horses suffer intensely from insect bites. It is a pitiful sight to watch those with decked tails, trying to shake off their pestiferous little enemies. A fly net would add vastly to his comfort.

A well fitted harness will ease up on Dobbins' life of toil. A kind hearted master will think of his horse a little on extra hot days. Human beings slacken up the pace a little under the strain of the summer weather, but horses usually have to drag the same old heavy loads. A man with good sentiment will keep an eye on his horses to see how they stand their strain, and will favor them when they show signs of excessive fatigue.

While horses may not need as much feed in hot weather as in winter, there are some men who persistently underfeed them all the time. The starved ribs on these pathetic creatures are a continual reproach against their stingy owners. Such parsimonious people hurt themselves just as much as they do the poor brutes. An ill fed and ill cared for animal never does as much work and has a shorter career of service.

Then much could be done to improve the standards of the pictures. While on the whole they are harmless, yet a lot of pictures slip through that are not right. It is hard for one theatre to take a stand against them, when all the others in the same section are using them.

Too many picture producers seem to think that a clear cut of the ordinary type is not spicy enough. They must have stories in which the heroine has had a gutter experience to make her interesting. Some pictures subtly ridicule marriage and the home, and make a direct attempt to secure popularity by inflaming sexual feeling.

It has been reported that the producers of moving pictures were making an effort to combine to improve their tone and standard. They should do so. The pictures are to a large extent forming the opinions and habits of the next generation. It is an exceedingly important matter that they should work for the advance and welfare of the community in all respects in they have done in so many ways.

The fellow who breaks the order for not handling the big grounds with a tool belt is on the same side as the capitalist, catch-all, who goes with the capitalistic interests.

About a week ago the Newark Advocate was a witness to the great crowd that day to see the first performances, and from the reports it is evident that a good number of them were well satisfied.

Now the time has come when the opening of our new church is at hand, when the people of Newark will be opened to the world, and when we have some exciting news to tell.

If the world is not too busy, we are to invite you to come and see the new forces that are now to be seen about them in using the name of the who work on them.

At the same time we are to have a general meeting of the members of the various societies, to discuss the various subjects of interest to them.

Good numbers of our people are now to be seen in the various meetings with strong and decided voices.

To those people we say, "Come on, let us help you to make your names known and honored."

"Just can't work any more." The faded, jaded, over-worked woman, with pains here or there; should ask her neighbor for advice. Ten-to-one she was dragged down by the pains and ailments of her sex, and was completely cured by that temperature tonic made from wild bark and roots, and known for 50 years as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. When a woman complains of backache, dizziness or pain—where everything looks black before her eyes—a dragging feeling, or bearing-down, with nervousness, she should turn to this "temperance" herbal tonic, known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It can be obtained in almost every drug store in the land and the ingredients are printed in plain English on the wrapper. Put up in tablets or liquid. Dr. Pierce, of Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N.Y., will send a trial size for 10 cents.

Ashland, Ohio—"I was restored to health by taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription which I had given to me, giving it to all who was suffering with my trouble. I became ill run-down, weak and nervous and had severe pains in my sides also suffered with backaches. I was so weak and miserable that I could scarcely get around at all. I doctored and was given up by several doctors and I began to feel that I was not getting well. I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription which I took according to directions, and I was cured of my ailment and restored to a strong, healthy condition and have had very little sickness since. I am very thankful to Dr. Pierce for his wonderful medicine and I always recommend it to those whom I find ailing."—Mrs. Fred W. Harpe, 12 Ralph Street

TWO-STORY HOUSE IN STREET STOPS TRAFFIC

The moving of the two story building formerly occupied by the Reinbold plumbing company for offices from the site at the corner of Locust and Fourth streets tied up traffic this morning. At the street intersections it was necessary to take the building across the car tracks, necessitating the removing of trolley wires. The car only ran to Locust and Fourth streets where passengers were transferred to a car which carried them from Hudson avenue and Locust street to the square.

PARIS LEADERS CANCEL GENERAL STRIKE ORDER

Paris, July 19.—It was announced early this morning by the executive committee of the general federation of labor that it had been decided to rescind the call for Monday's general strike. The announcement followed a meeting of the committee which lasted until after midnight.

In view of the vote in the chamber of deputies yesterday, the announcement said, "which showed that the chamber at length has heard the voice of the working classes and has condemned the government's economic policies and measures in regard to demobilization, the general strike for Monday will not be called. Amnesty has been decided upon by the government under the threat of the projected movement."

Milady's Boudoir

Everyday Exercises.

With the ordinary bedroom chair you have the means of taking a series of summer exercises that will bring strength and vigor and vitality to any woman, no matter how hot the weather may be. Ten minutes a day is all, too, that you need to devote to the task.

When you are ready, remove your clothing and put on a loose garment. Stand erect with the chest high, the abdomen held in and grasp the chair with both hands. Hold it straight out in front, an arms length, then swing the right leg back and left to right, keeping the feet firmly on the floor. Then take one step forward with the right foot as you swing the chair, then with the left foot until you have made five sweeping circles with the chair.

Unless you are unusually strong you will not be able to do this many times the first, or, perhaps, the second time you try it. It will take several days to accomplish the movement but it is a splendid thing for the back and arms.

For the shoulders and wrists stand erect and lift the chair from the floor with both hands until it is straight out in front. Lower it to the floor and lift again. Repeat this five times.

An exercise that will give special poise to the entire body is to lift the chair shoulder-high at arms length, straight out from the side of the body. After respecting this five times with each arm, follow with this exercise. Lie at an ordinary kitchen table, and, with your hands above your head, grasp the back of the chair firmly with both hands. Then slowly lift it above your head and over your body until it rests on your knees. At the same time raise the feet until the legs are in a straight line with the body. It will bring strength to every muscle of the body.

Display of Herbs.
The most remarkable display of roots, herbs, gums and leaves of medical plants ever displayed in Newark is now on display at Evans' drug store in the Warren block. Mr. Powers, the Dreco man, has taken the public into his confidence and is showing the people just what they are taking. The display is well worth a visit of everybody.
